Track your progress

The screenshot shows the British Council English Online Self-Study dashboard. The top navigation bar includes the British Council logo, the text 'English Online', and links for 'Home', 'Themes', 'Book classes', 'Extra study', a notification bell, and a user profile dropdown labeled 'Self-Study A2'. The main heading is 'Welcome to English Online Self-Study'. Below this, there are two tabs: 'Your progress' (selected) and 'Your activity'. The 'Your progress' section is divided into two columns. The left column shows the 'Level' as 'A2' with a circular progress indicator and text stating 'You have completed 17 activities of your level'. The right column lists completion statistics: '0 Themes completed', '0 Lessons completed', and '0 Classes attended'. Below these are 'Achievements' (0 stars, with a note 'You don't have any badge yet. View') and 'Grade average' (38%, with a note 'Well done, keep it up!'). The 'Your activity' section has tabs for 'Lessons' (selected) and 'Bookings'. It lists three lessons: 'Daily Life Talking about yourself' (8/25 exercises), 'Daily Life A perfect home' (1/25 exercises), and 'Daily Life Everyday life' (1/26 exercises), each with a 'Continue' button. Navigation arrows for 'Previous' and 'Next' are at the bottom.

The first thing you will see on the home page is your progress dashboard. Use this to track your progress and grades.
